March 26: TIME BANDITS (1981)

9-year-old Kevin gets caught up with a band of treasure-hunting dwarves in a rollicking cosmic caper involving a map of the Universe, the Most Fabulous Object in the World, and the Supreme Being – and in the process, meets King Agamemnon, Robin Hood and Napoleon! Starring Sean Connery, John Cleese, Michael Palin, Shelley Duval and Sir Ralph Richardson. Directed by Terry Gilliam; music by George Harrison. Rated PG.

April 9: EDWARD SCISSORHANDS (1990)

Johnny Depp gives one of his most poignant performances in director Tim Burton's bittersweet fairy tale of a gentle young man with a unique "deformity" seeking acceptance and love in a very conventional suburban community. Winona Ryder, Dianne Wiest and Vincent Price (in his last film role) also star. Rated PG-13.

April 23: A MATTER OF LIFE AND DEATH (1946)

David Niven and Kim Hunter star in a lyrical wartime love story. An English RAF aviator, on the verge of death after a plane crash, must argue before Heaven's court for a second chance to return to Earth and rejoin his love, an American servicewoman; his skeptical judges aren't so sure it's a good idea. With Raymond Massey and Richard Attenborough. Far ahead of its time in cinematography, art direction and special effects, this engrossing romance is still fresh today. Rated PG.

May 7: UP (2009)

Disney-Pixar animated hit about a senior citizen who sets out to fulfill his lifelong dream of visiting South America – but with some unexpected twists and turns along the way: namely, a flying house held aloft by balloons, a childhood hero gone wrong, plus an accidental stowaway – a young Wilderness Explorer 70 years his junior. Starring the voices of Edward Asner and John Ratzenberger. Rated PG.
