

Riegelsville Library Board Meeting

June 14th, 2021

7:02

Marshal Miller will be taking notes.

Beth Banko called to order.

Jim Bunting 2nded.

7:04

Terry Fritz moved to verify minutes.

Beth 2nded.

7:05

Becky Finberg gives director's report.

BCLS will no longer be quarantining materials starting in July.

Adults book clubs back in library.

Community Member Library members still meeting by Zoom.

Summer reading classes will not run at the same time as the art classes because they are pulling the same students.

Summer Reading Plan out. Programs via Zoom. Need a hard surface. Cannot be outside.

2 programs a day.

Beth moves to accept.

Terry 2nded

7:09 - Treasurer's Report

Received the contribution from the Borough of Riegelsville.

Still trending in a good direction.

Beth moves to accept, Jim seconded.

7:11 - Committee Report

Fundraising - Shelving until after webinar

Volunteers tried to start their own fundraiser. Confusion about the process, exclusion of the board.

These need to be decided at the board level between the board and the council.

7:15

Council is working towards the goal of opening the township building, but a lot of changing regulations need to be parsed through. The hope is to get the books sorted as soon as possible. Plans will be discussed at community affairs meetings.

7:24 - New Business:

Prospect of a file or list program for donors at varying levels. Tiers. Targeted audiences.

Becky said that we have a Dropbox for storage. We will move forward with that. Terry will talk to Estelle about previous efforts.

7:26

Beth will go to community meeting. David Oleksa will attend Durham.

7:28 - Historic Room

Received new item. Spiral bound book about the trolley lines in the area.

7:30 – New Business

Jim Bunting – Bylaws Revision? Something like a mission statement that could provide guidance on how the board interacts with the community. A place to point to. Possibly a conduct statement. Get one in writing and publicly available.

7:34

Terry Calls Meeting to an end.

2nded by Beth.